*Austin GME programs are now sponsored by UT Southwestern. Previously, these were sponsored by UTMB or Austin Med. Ed. Programs-Seton.

**University Hospital-St. Paul in Dallas is now part of UT Southwestern Medical Center.

***Four institutions have residency programs dually accredited by Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) and American Osteopathic Association (AOA), as follows: family medicine program at Methodist Charlton Med. Ctr., Dallas; psychiatry program at John Peter Smith in Ft. Worth, family medicine program at Conroe Med. Ed. Fdn. in Conroe; and pediatric program at Driscoll Children's, Corpus Christi. Trainees who complete dually accredited programs have option of board certification by either or both the American Board of Medical Specialties or AOA. Osteopathic data are shown in separate report.
