Figure 3. A more conservative estimate of the percentage of non-elderly adult Texans in the insurance gap among all people without insurance in Texas counties surveyed in rural and urban areas of different regions of Texas, 2011-2013. Those with incomes below 18% of the federal poverty level (FPL) without insurance are subtracted from those with incomes below 100% of the FPL without insurance.