The Life of a Bill

Introduction

Committee Work

Public Hearings

Bill Analysis

Committee Chair

Debate and Amend

Committee Report

Sent to Calendars

Committee Vote

Failure to reconcile differences or gain a majority in either chamber

Committee members, including the chair, study the bill and can assign it to a committee for further consideration.

The governor may veto a bill — the legislature may override by a 2/3 vote.

The People

The organization

For more information visit www.texmed.org/legislature