

FREE EARLY CAREER EDUCATION FOR RESIDENTS

Choose from these free one-hour programs to be held at your facility.

FAQs for New Physicians: Starting Your Career

Get answers to your questions about starting your career from compensation, contracts, incorporation, marketing, human resources, and more.

Making Your Transition From Training to Practice

Where to begin? Find out how to time key steps for a smooth transition from training to practice.

CVs and Interviews: Sell Yourself

Learn the secrets of a quality curriculum vitae and tips for successful interviewing.

Narrow Your Options: Which Practice Is Right for You?

Deciding if a practice is right for you involves many factors. Learn how to work through your choices to arrive at the best decision.

Contracts: You Get What You Negotiate****

Learn strategies for using what is negotiable in a recruitment or employment contract to obtain an offer that meets your personal and professional needs.

Noncompete Covenants****

Help plan for your future with this overview of restrictions, consequences, and benefits of contract terms that may affect your career in the event you decide to leave a practice down the road.

Taking the Mystery out of Personal Insurance

Learn to protect your current and future income, your practice, your family and loved ones. Discover the best time to buy insurance and when you're most insurable.

What Every Physician Needs to Know: Medical Malpractice 101***

Learn about the types of malpractice coverage available, what happens if you have a claim, and what questions to ask your employer or carrier.

Health Care Data: Managing Cyber Threats***

Strong cyber security is an increasingly important requirement in today's health care environment. Learn cyber security best practices and how to comply with federal and state security laws.

Challenges of Patient Encounters

Most physician encounters with patients are positive, but they can be challenging. Learn how to deal with challenging situations in your medical practice and gain a better understanding of patients and their problems.

Addressing Fatigue in Physicians

With more multitasking, interruptions, and fewer hours of sleep have come a host of health and performance problems for residents. Learn strategies for managing fatigue.

Boundaries: What You Need to Know

There is no such thing as a consensual relationship between patient and physician. Learn how to maintain professional boundaries in patient-physician and physician-staff interactions.

**Limited availability*

\*Available as a video conference*

Select programs may satisfy ACGME requirements. Call for details.

To schedule your program, contact TMA Practice Consulting at (800) 523-8776 or practice.consulting@texmed.org.
Have questions? Contact us today!

Practice Management Services